PHIL NEAL

WELCOME to Ian Porterfield and his troops from Reading, who have had a good, steady start to the season. They come to Burnden Park at a time when we have gone five League games without defeat and looking to extend that run even further. It all points to being a very interesting, yet very tough task for us but I'm sure that, having had the bonus of success in the Leyland DAF Cup on Tuesday, we are up to the job. I still maintain that Tranmere are one of the best teams in the division so our victory was all the more encouraging.

I hope I'm not tempting fate by saying so but one of the most pleasing aspects of our recent results has been the number of clean sheets we have kept. We appear to have stopped giving those silly goals away that were a feature of some of our earlier games. Long may it continue. Hopefully, we will have a few more clean sheets in the bank as the season goes on.

Being tight at the back is something that will certainly stand us in good stead at Witton in our FA Cup tie next week. Giving nothing away in defence is the essence of any good Cup run—and that's something we are always looking for.

On a somewhat unhappier note, we have all been saddened by the loss of Sammy Lee's services for the near future. We've coped with similar blows to Jeff Chandler and Mark Came in the past and we'll have to cope with this one now. It's all part and parcel of the cruel side of football. We've already seen, quite recently, how fate has robbed us of Bobby Savage—sadly, that's how things can turn against you in the real world.

An update of today's opposition

READING

THIS afternoon we extend a warm welcome to the players, officials and supporters of Reading. The Royals will come to Burnden full of confidence after a fine 1-0 win at Stoke City last Saturday. Steve Moran scored what proved to be the winning goal after only three minutes and, though Reading had to defend desperately at times, they ended a worrying run of four consecutive League defeats. Moreover, the victory earned the Barclays award as performance of the week from England manager Graham Taylor and his panel.

Prior to their disappointing results in October, Reading had established themselves among the leading clubs in the division with an impressive start which brought five wins and three draws from the opening nine games. A pedigree and proven strike force of Trevor Senior, Steve Moran and Craig Maskell were among the goals, sending shudders through opposing defences, as the Royals looked to justify their tag as one of the promotion favourites.

Fine away wins were gathered at Exeter (3-1), Huddersfield (2-0) and Rotherham (2-0) as well as home victories over Crewe (2-1) and Bournemouth (2-1). But a 0-1 defeat at Wigan on 13 October started the rot and after losing their next game, 1-2 at Bury, Reading suffered successive home defeats at the hands of Brentford and Leyton Orient in a perplexing turn-around in fortunes.

Manager Ian Porterfield, the 42 year old former Sunderland and Sheffield Wednesday midfielder, took charge at Elm Park a year ago, replacing Ian Branfoot at the helm. Remembered for his match-winner in Sunderland's 1973 FA Cup Final win over Leeds, Porterfield was previously in charge at Rotherham, Sheffield United and Aberdeen and assistant to Bobby Campbell at Chelsea. He is assisted by former Chelsea and Wales international goalkeeper Eddie Niedzwiecki whose playing career was ended prematurely by injury.

Last season Reading finished tenth, earning a reputation as one of the division's best footballing sides, but rarely finding the consistency to mount a promotion challenge. They drew 19 games and won only five times away from home. The club played some exciting games in Cup football, going down 1-4 in an FA Cup 4th round replay at Newcastle after a thrilling 3-3 draw at Elm Park. In earlier ties, Reading beat Bristol Rovers and Conference side Welling after some marathon encounters, taking 3 games to beat Rovers and four to beat the non-leaguers. A 2-1 home win over Second-Division Sunderland was one of the shock results of the 3rd round. In the Littlewoods Cup Reading went down 0-4 at Newcastle in the 2nd round after a 3-1 first leg win at home. Hopes of cup glory in this season's Rumbelows Cup were ended by a first round knockout at the hands of Second Division local rivals Oxford United.

Goalkeeper Phil Burns is a former soldier who joined the professional ranks after impressing during a trial period with the club. After making three FA Cup appearances last season, the 23 year old Stockport born 'keeper made his League bow at Huddersfield in September and has played in each of the last nine games. Former Chelsea number one Steve Francis was ever-present in the League for Reading last season, completing a hundred appearances for the Royals. The 26 year old ex-England Youth international was hampered by injury last term and underwent a hernia operation during the summer.

29 year old Tredegar born Linden Jones joined Reading from Newport in 1987. Having completed a century of League games for his first club, Cardiff City, and then Newport, he made his 100th Reading appearance in the home game with Crewe in September. Talented wingman Michael Gilkes has been appearing in the number three shirt in recent weeks. The Hackney born 25 year old is now in his seventh season with the club, having been a regular in recent years. Keith McPherson was a summer signing from Northampton Town where he was last season's player of the year. The 27 year old defender joined the Cobblers in 1985-86 from West Ham, where he made one first-team appearance, after a loan spell at Cambridge and completed 200 League games earlier this season. Long-serving Martin Hicks recently broke goalkeeper Steve Death's club record of 471 League appearances set between 1969-82. The 33 year old defender, a former team-mate of the Royals' previous record holder, made his League debut back in 1977-78 after joining the club from Charlton, and has been club skipper since 1982.

Reading-born Adrian Williams is a former club trainee who is now a regular member of the first-team squad. Last season the 19 year old made 18 League and cup appearances in the full-back role. The experienced Mick Gooding was signed from Wolves for £65,000 last January. Formerly with Rotherham (two spells), Chesterfield and Peterborough, the 31 year old Newcastle-born midfielder made his 400th League appearance in the home game with Leyton Orient last month. 19 year old Scott Taylor, a Portsmouth born midfielder player, made his League bow two seasons ago and has since become a regular member of the first-team squad. Former St. Mirren striker Mick Conroy made a successful switch to a defensive role last season. The 24 year old Glasgow born former Coventry apprentice made his mark initially with Clydebank.

Trevor Senior is one of the most respected strikers in League football and has the enviable goal-scoring record of 153 goals in 305 League games. After initially signing for Portsmouth from home-town Dorchester Town in 1981-82, he joined Reading in 1983. In four seasons at Elm Park the 28 year old scored 102 League goals and returned to the club two seasons ago after short spells with Watford and Middlesbrough. Steve Moran made his name with Southampton, scoring 78 goals in 180 games. He joined Reading from Leicester City during the 1987-88 season for a then club record £250,000 fee and has a tally of 120 goals in 322 League appearances. The Croydon-born 29 year old is a former England U-21 international. 22 year old Huddersfield striker Craig Maskell was a tribunal-fixed, £250,000 signing during the summer. Maskell, who scored in Huddersfield's 2-2 draw at Burnden last May, notched 43 goals in 87 games for the Yorkshire club after joining them from Southampton.

David Leworthy was signed from Oxford in the summer of 1989. Formerly with Portsmouth, Fareham Town and Spurs, the 28 year old forward has still to establish himself as a regular first-team player, although he is nearing 100 career league appearances. Teenaged striker Stuart Lovell, last season's top scorer in reserve and youth team games, came up through the schoolboy ranks to make his League debut as substitute against Brentford recently. Steve Richardson completed his 300th Reading League appearance in the home game with Crewe in September. The 28 year old defender was signed from Southampton in 1983. 18 year old midfielder Chris Seymour is another youth product to have graduated to the first-team ranks this season, making his debut on the opening day of the season at Exeter. Experienced Floyd Street joined Reading from Wolves during the summer. The 31 year old Jamaican born defender played formerly for Cambridge and Derby and also had a spell in Dutch football with Utrecht. George Friel made his League debut last season at Wigan. The 20 year old Reading born striker is another product of the club's youth policy.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL INTELLIGENCE UNIT

In the build up to the World Cup 1990 the National Football Intelligence Unit issued a Hooligan Hotline, number 071 230 5340. This was publicised on television and in the National Press, inviting members of the public to ring in with information on known or potential troublemakers believed to be travelling to Italy to follow England. This operation was a great success resulting in 350 calls the vast majority of which contained information and intelligence of use to this Unit.

As a result of this success I feel it would be advantageous if this number could be available to decent football supporters on a regular basis in an effort to combat the hooligans who are bringing our National game into disrepute

Reports and events from years past

10th NOVEMBER

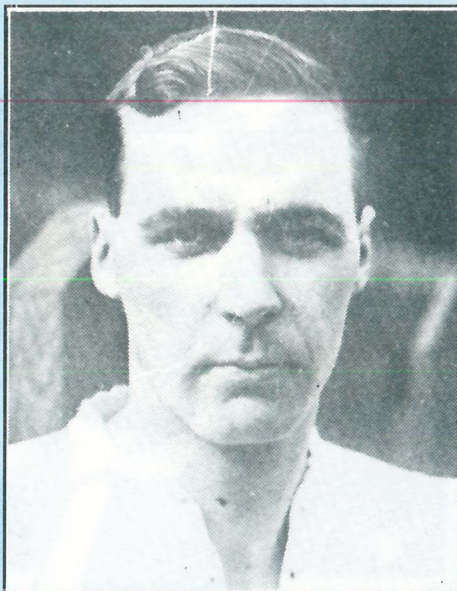

1888: The Wanderers gave a debut to David Mercer of the Lytham club but he couldn't help prevent a 3-2 defeat at Wolves. Jim Brogan and Harold McGuinness were the Bolton scorers. On the same day the Reserves represented the club in the 2nd qualifying round of the FA Cup against non league opposition. West Manchester were the visitors to Pikes Lane and they were crushed 9-0 with Jim Turner top-scoring by hitting a hat trick. 1900: Bolton went down 3-0 to Bury at Gigg Lane without the services of Jack Fitchett who was representing the Football League against the Irish League in Belfast.

1917: After thumping Burnley 8-0 the previous week Manchester United were Bolton's next victims with two goals from Bob Geddes and one from Alf Winterburn giving them a 3-1 win at Old Trafford.

1923: A hat trick from David Jack and a goal from Joe Smith defeated Chelsea 4-0 at Burnden to put the Wanderers into 5th place in Division One 3 points behind leaders Cardiff City.

1928: A 4-1 win over Leeds United at Burnden extended Bolton's unbeaten run to 5 games. Harold Blackmore scored twice whilst George Gibson and Jim McClelland also found the net.

1934: After two defeats the Wanderers bounced back to keep a hold on top place in Division Two with a 4-0 home win over Fulham. Ray Westwood hit two, Willie Cook and debutant Billy Chambers hit the others.

1956: The unbeaten run was extended to 7 games thanks to a 2-0 home win over Manchester United. A crowd of 39,922 saw Terry Allcock and Doug Holden get the goals. Bolton were to have a 100 per cent record over both their Manchester neighbours that season.

1962: Two players later to star for Manchester City were the Wanderers goalgetters against City at Burnden. Francis Lee struck twice, once from the penalty spot and Wyn Davies got the other in a 3-1 win.

1979: Bolton were still without an away win after a 2-0 defeat at Tottenham where Terry Yorath and a Glenn Hoddle penalty sealed the points.

CHESTER CITY 0 BOLTON 2

Our recent improved form continued with a fine win against a tricky Chester outfit. The first half on the balance of play was fairly even although the home side did create the more clear cut chances but found Dave Felgate in brilliant form between the posts. The second half saw a very professional display from the Wanderers which could have resulted in a bigger win than the one recorded. David Reeves and Tony Philliskirk were the boys to cash in on a couple of Chester blunders and keep the Whites moving up in the right direction of the Third Division table.

BOLTON WANDERERS COMMUNITY NEWS

Last week we held our Community 6-a-side for the schools, during which a lot of excellent football was played.

In the first group Harwood Meadows went through without conceding a goal beating St. Marys, Plodder Lane and St. Johns. In the other group Cherry Tree ran out winners beating Moorgate, Lenderge and Branwood.

The final was played in excellent manner with Cherry Tree coming from behind to win 3-2 in the last minute. Therefore, Cherry Tree go forward to the regional final against Wrexham, Tranmere, Chester, to be played this month. The team received the trophy donated to us by Mr Readey of Readey Trophies and Engraving Ltd., Bolton, and it was presented by Mark Seagraves and Dave Felgate.

The two finalists line up just before kick-off time with the Community trainees.

A look at some of the great soccer stars

"One bad game at Rotherham and everything turned sour", that's how Paul describes his one year stop at Bolton Wanderers. That was in the 1984/85 season after being freed by Preston at the age of 23. He said, "It was Brian Burrows who is now at Coventry who recommended me to manager John McGovern, but I only fulfilled eight games".

Five years on and Paul finds himself facing up to his old club in the F.A. Cup in one weeks time and he's quietly confident. Of the present Wanderers team Paul remembers Julian Darby, who was just an apprentice at the time, Mark Winstanley and Steve Thompson. "It was Stevie who kept me out of the team", he added.

The F.A. Cup brings out that little bit extra in players and upsets frequently happen but Phil Neal is fully aware of Cup football and recently carried out a personal check on next weeks opposition. But Paul pointed to Witton's current form saying, "We've started the season off well and are top of the League. I've got to be honest, we fancy our chances and Bolton are in the bottom half of the

PAUL LODGE WITTON ALBION

League." When the draw was made many Wanderers faithfuls asked the whereabouts of Witton Albion. Well, according to Paul they will be pleasantly surprised with the Albion set up. "We have a new stadium", Paul enthused. When asked the reason for Witton's sudden change of fortune, Paul explained, "When the successful

Colne Dynamo's team disbanded last season we signed half a dozen of their players and they have made a major difference to the way we play and we have ex-Huddersfield pro Keith Mason in goal."

Paul has vivid memories of the day he was given the red card at Bolton, he said "Initially I felt it was the end of the world and it was only when I was introduced to non league football that I realised what a good standard it was."

He has certainly been on his travels since, firstly joining Barrow in the Gola League where former Liverpool and England centre forward David Johnson was manager. "Dave left the club and a lot of Scouse lads also went" added Paul. Next stop was Southport for 18 months and then Macclesfield before being snapped up by Witton two years ago. "Its been a long time here for me", quipped Paul.

It's good to hear that Paul Lodge still loves playing the game and believes he may have had his share of bad luck over the years. He said, "Football is all about opinions and I could have been in the wrong place at the wrong time. It took a while for me to accept but I've never lost my love for the game and I'm enjoying playing now. But there's no malice and Paul will enjoy those 90 minutes next Saturday.

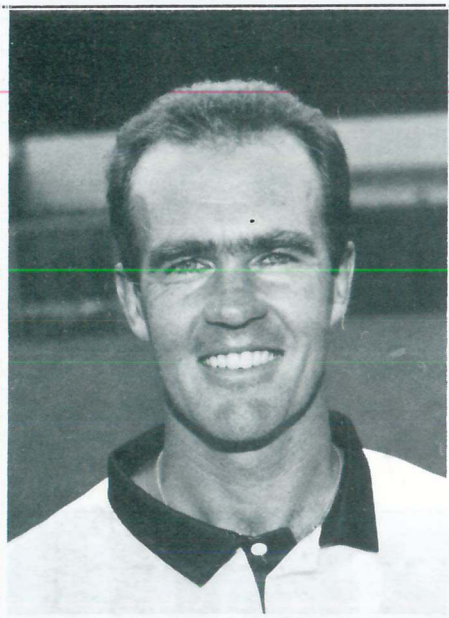

In conclusion Paul said, "When you see Robbie Savage, give him my regards and I would be pleased to help him in his testimonial year."

There's no more well respected and determined professional in the game than Dean Crombie and even though the Wanderers defenders currently in the side are going through an impressive run, Dean is as hungry as ever to recapture a place in the line up. "Yes I feel I have another two seasons of first team football left in me, so of course I am waiting for the opportunity to get back into the side" commented Dean.

Phil Neal has of course utilised Dean's wealth of experience in the game by recently sending him on fact-finding missions to recent opposition such as Coventry and also today's visitors Reading, who Dean rates as a "hard-working team" who do cause problems to the opposition by getting men behind the ball—as they did so effectively at Stoke last weekend. Ironically Dean did have a loan spell at Reading four years ago this month, a month he really enjoyed at Elm Park with him making four League appearances for the Berkshire outfit. "I had been out injured at the time and when Reading manager Ian Branfoot, a former playing colleague of mine at Lincoln, offered me first team football for the month, I jumped at the chance, remembering well my first game for them—a 2-0 home victory over Brighton.

With our visit to Grimsby now very much on the horizon Dean recalled his happy days with that club where he played over 350 games for the South Humberside outfit. "It's great to see them doing well again. A couple of my former team-mates are still there in Paul Agnew and John McDermot."

It was here at Bolton though where Dean realised one of his ambitions to play at Wembley, where of course he had the added bonus of scoring a memorable goal. "What a day that was. An occasion never to be forgotten", added the stylish defender. Dean was very instrumental in playing such a leading role during that run up to the Sherpa Van final, with himself admitting to "playing probably the best football of my career in that 20 game unbeaten run", and that period was rewarding to him with the recognition of being named the BEN/HB Player of the Season.

Moving away from the football for a moment; Dean is the complete family man with his lovely wife Jane, kids Lara, Rhys and Ryan keeping him very busy on the home front, leaving him only time for a game of golf from time to time to relax to.

Dean is currently in the throws of working to achieve his full F.A. coaching badge, having already done his preliminary, with the prep course coming up later this month. Its not surprising then to have seen him help Steve Carroll with a bit of youth coaching already this season and he also regularly takes charge of the training sessions involving the YTS youngsters. We spoke to him about this; "Yes its good to be involved, the lads are eager to learn and they have done well already this season but the coaching is still very much in the future. I still want a place in the team before I concentrate all my efforts on that side of the game."

Deano did reveal that he had to pass on his congratulations to colleague Steve Thompson who became the first player to nut-meg him in training while he has been at the Club, "A major achievement that", added Dean.

There's no doubting that Dean Crombie has been one of manager Phil Neal's best signings for the Club, playing a leading role on the field as well as being a fine ambassador for Bolton Wanderers off the field and with his fine attitude, he is a prime example for any youngster to follow into the game.

After scoring 12 goals in their previous FA Youth Cup qualifying games, conceding just 2, the Wanderers seemed to be on their way to visiting Newcastle United in the next round when they led 3-1 after 64 minutes.

Bolton appeared unsettled before the interval with Paul Bernard hitting the bar for Oldham and John Eyre hitting the post when it looked easier to score. Having Nicky Bentham booked for a late challenge on Bernard didn't help matters but in first half injury time things began to look up.

Bentham ran the ball out of his own penalty area and played the ball out to Barry Smith on the right. He swung it inside to Craig Lewin who in turn found Bentham unmarked at the far post who opened the scoring with a sweet left foot volley.

The second half was only four minutes old when the Latics equalised, John Eyre capitalising on hesitancy in the Bolton defence.

The Wanderers regained the lead in the 63rd minute. A long kick from Chris Clarke was flicked on by Steve Birks into the path of Barry Smith who ran on to shoot home.

A minute later persistence from Birks paid off as he won a 50/50 ball with the keeper on the edge of the area before regaining his balance to shoot into an empty net to make it 3-1.

Oldham hit back immediately when Adam Vigon rattled home a cross after an uncharacteristic mistake from Chris Clarke and in the 68th minute they made it 3-3 when Bernard headed a Vigon cross into the net.

After this goal flurry things settled down with neither side wanting to give anything away and the replay was scheduled for Boundary Park last night.

A lighthearted look at football

Just what is going on? Acid house parties in Westhoughton, can't believe it. Who's organising them, Barry Grant off Brookside or is it just somebody who wants to take the shine off our fine victory over Chester last weekend? There was I, last Sunday, raving over our fine performance, singing "Here we go" and "The Whites are going up", when on T.V. and radio all you can hear is that the riot squad move into Westhoughton; it must be to break the hundreds of Wanderers fans who have besieged flying winger Stuart Storer's house after his brilliance of the previous day. But no, low and behold, the latest craze has hit Cow Yead City. Before we move on from this unfortunate episode we can dispel any rumours that captain Phil Brown had agreed to sing at the unauthorised gathering leaving the good news that he will entertain us at both the Lifeline nights in December and January at the Pembroke Halls in Walkden. PS—his agent also informed us of a forthcoming rap record with top local group The Houghton Weavers although no date has yet been fixed for their appearance on Juke Box Jury.

Moving on to more serious notes, and it was great to see the twin strikers get into the act with their goals against Chester. All know about Philly's goal getting with him being one of the leading marksmen in the country but it was great to see David Reeves find the back of the net. Nobody works harder than the big man up front and the reaction of the fans when he converted his chance was brilliant. Let's just hope he can now go on from strength to strength and start to catch up on his partner up front.

Today of course we face tough opposition in the form of Reading, who had an outstanding victory also last Saturday against promotion favourites Stoke City. Messrs Senior, Maskell and Moran lead an attack which on paper is second to none in the Division, so this afternoon's clash looks all set to be a cracker with the Whites looking to maintain and build on the nice little run they have had recently in the League.

Next weekend sees us move onto the F.A. Cup trail with our visit to non-league Witton Albion of the H.F.S. Loans League.

It's always a special competition for small and big alike and they must have been made up when they drew a club with the tradition that we have got, but come kick-off time next Saturday it's a 'roll your sleeves up' job, eleven against eleven with tradition not meaning anything at least for ninety minutes that is. Ex Wanderer Paul Lodge will of course be looking to put one over his old club as he has been instrumental into guiding the Cheshire outfit into top spot this season. It all goes into making the cup tie a nerve tingling occasion that no doubt will be broadcast all over the nation. Let's just wish for another couple of Tony Philliskirk specials that he usually reserves for cup matches; remember both Swindon last season and Coventry this—so do I—and I wouldn't mind seeing a couple more next Saturday.

The Wanderers will be looking to produce a repeat of last season's showing against Reading here at Burnden. Tony Philliskirk ended a spell that had seen Bolton go 503 minutes without a goal to give them an interval lead. A minute after the break he turned a Robbie Savage shot past Steve Francis and in the 57th minute Steve Thompson made it 3-0 with a spectacular free kick.

The crowd of 4,679 was Burnden's smallest League gate of the season, a fact that also happened on Reading's first League visit to Burnden in March 1985 when 3,627 saw the visitors win 2-1.

All the goals that day came during the first half, Dean Horrix hitting two for Reading before Tony

Tony Caldwell (on ground) scores against Reading in March 1985

Caldwell pulled one back for the Wanderers, but it wasn't enough to prevent their seventh successive defeat.

Reading completed the double that season, the first League encounter between the clubs taking place at Elm Park in October 1984, a 3-1 home win resulting. Trevor Senior, Dean Horrix and Colin Duncan scored for Reading with Jeff Chandler getting Bolton's only reply.

Indeed Elm Park hasn't been a happy hunting ground for Bolton with only one point being won there in four visits.

In October 1986 a goal from Steve Wood earned Reading the points and their eleventh consecutive win since the start of that season. In January 1989, John Thomas put Bolton in front and they were denied a first ever win on the ground thanks to a speculative 35 yard shot from Billy Whitehurst that found its way into the net ten minutes from time.

Last season the Wanderers went down to their first away defeat in the League for three months when goals from Mick Tait and Mick Gooding kept up Reading's outside chances of promotion play off place.

Bolton's only other success against today's visitors came here at Burnden in March 1986 when second half goals from Tony Caldwell and Warren Joyce earned a 2-0 win against the Third Division leaders.

Our overall League record against Reading is as follows:-

	P	W	D	L	F	A
Home	4	2	1	1	7	3
Away	4	0	1	3	2	7

PLAYED FOR BOTH CLUBS

JOHN Hulme was yet another player who progressed through the Wanderers junior ranks during the early sixties.

He was spotted playing for Stockport and Cheshire boys and made his League debut when 17 years old in October 1962 in a 1-0 First Division home win against Nottingham Forest. The winner that day came from another Burnden youngster, Francis Lee.

Hulme didn't become a regular in the side until 1967 with Bryan Edwards and John Napier holding the centre half berth between them until then.

His first League goal came in February 1968 which earned a point from a 1-1 draw against Queens Park Rangers at Burnden.

After relegation to the Third Division Hulme lost his place to Paul Jones and in March 1972 went on loan to Notts County. In July 1972 his former team mate at Burnden, Charlie Hurley, signed him for Reading in a £10,000 deal.

Hulme spent two years at Elm Park making 87 League appearances before he returned to the North West with Bury. At Gigg Lane he made another 85 appearances before turning to management with Chaux-de-Fonds in the Swiss League.

His Bolton record is as follows:

SEASON BY SEASON

A look back at years gone by

1930/31 SEASON

Bob Howarth was appointed captain for a season that opened with a 3-0 home win over Middlesbrough. Unfortunately the crowd of 13648 was the smallest opening day gate since the War.

Only one point from the next four games left the club in the bottom four. A 7-2 defeat at Liverpool heralded the end of one era and the start of a new. Dick Pym ended his Bolton League career, Bob Jones taking over as number one custodian, whilst Harry Goslin made his debut.

The Wanderers remained in 20th position despite a 1-0 win at Chelsea. Harold Blackmore scored the all important goal but had Jackson to thank for missing a penalty for the home side.

An improvement came during October to put some light on the horizon. Champions Sheffield Wednesday took the points at Hillsborough thanks to a disputed penalty but Manchester City were beaten in the Lancashire Cup and Grimsby defeated 4-2. There was a price to pay however with Jack Nilsom fracturing a leg whilst scoring the winning goal over City.

There was another slump during November and centre forward Tommy Tait was purchased from Manchester City. He scored in each of his first two games but failed to satisfy the management and the position returned to Blackmore.

George Taylor a youngster from Ashton-under-Lyne was taken on as a professional during December in what was to be the start of a long distinguished Wanderers career both on and off the field.

Due to the poor League position hopes were once again pinned on cup success but that was short lived. Carlisle were beaten in the 3rd round but Sunderland forced a draw in the next round thanks to an equaliser 3 minutes from time. Both sides were down to 10 men Urwin and Nuttall having been sent off for fighting. The Wearsiders won the replay at Roker.

League form continued to deteriorate with further injuries taking their toll. Bob Haworth broke his leg in a 4-1 defeat at Grimsby and with it ended his career as a Wanderer.

George Gibson requested a transfer as he was finding it difficult to follow a public idol, namely Joe Smith.

On 21st February George Taylor made his debut at Blackpool who were also struggling to fight off relegation. Bolton fought back from 3-1 to draw 3-3 with Blackmore netting the equaliser seven minutes from time.

In March Ted Viz-

ard, who had made his debut 20 years previously, and had not played a League game since October 1929, was reinstated. He took part in three games including a 6-2 home win over Sheffield United, five of the goals coming in a 21 minute spell, Blackmore hitting a hat trick.

Vizard's place went to Ray Westwood as part of the club's policy to give youth a fling in its hour of need. Westwood, whose uncle was David Stokes, an old Bolton stalwart, had only taken part in 12 Central League games for the club.

The Wanderers recorded four successive wins in the first eleven days of April to climb up to 12th place and safety.

Westwood scored his first goal for the club in a 2-0 win at cup finalists Birmingham City and Blackmore hit his 27th League goal of the season in a 4-1 home win over Leicester City.

The final game of the season saw the Wanderers visit champions Arsenal where they were taught a lesson and went down 5-0.

The term ended with the club looking to make economies the first of which was the failure to offer terms to 34 years old Bob Howarth.

Too many positions required immediate attention for the club to become a great force. The two bright spots was the discovery of Goslin and Westwood who had already become targets of other clubs. Tommy Tait's spell at the club was short lived and he left for Luton Town after scoring 4 goals in his 9 games during the season.

HELPING THE GAME

A fine new stand - one of the many initiatives supported by Trust funds.

The Football Trust 1990 has been created to help the game at all levels and to assist clubs meet the requirements of Lord Justice Taylor's Final Report.

Safety and comfort for all spectators is the primary objective and substantial funds have been made available for the provision of seating at Football League grounds. At the same time the Trust's commitment to family and community initiatives will continue with the provision of more family enclosures, better toilet facilities, covered accommodation, artificial pitches for local use and the development of women's and junior football particularly through community programmes, plus a wide range of policing and crowd control measures.

Each year The Trust expects to receive £20 million from the reduction in Pool Betting Duty plus the £10 million continuing contribution from the Spotting-the-Ball competition organised by Littlewoods, Vernons and Zettors. This money will be invested in projects which benefit football throughout the United Kingdom.
